

CHRISTIAN SERVICE IN PERU

Cultural Immersion Trip: May 22 - May 31, 2020

Travel to Peru with K2 Adventures Foundation to participate in 4 days of Christian service, visit the Sacsayhuaman Ruins and Cristo Blanco, attend mass celebrated in Spanish, and tour the famous Machu Picchu ruins. As a participant on this trip, the student will receive 100% of required Christian service hours for their upcoming school year.

K2 Adventure Travel

Kristen Sandquist and Kevin Cherilla, co-owners of the Arizona based adventure travel company, have over 25 years of mountaineering and philanthropic experience. Their trips will change the lives of all individuals that participate.

K2 Adventures Foundation

K2 Adventures Foundation has been providing local, national, and international support to individuals in need since 2009. This trip will focus on Christian service opportunities in Cusco, Peru.

Four days of Christian service will be performed in a local village, school or orphanage K2AF serves.

The students will participate in Christian service through independent projects that will involve painting, gardening and working with the children in the classrooms.

Day 1 (Friday, May 22)

Depart Phoenix Sky Harbor airport on AA Flight 1632 at 3:05 pm with an arrival into Lima, Peru the next day.

Day 2 (Saturday, May 23)

The students will arrive in Lima on AA Flight 909 at 5:31 am. After clearing customs, they will board another flight to Cusco, a small city in the Peruvian Andes once known as the capital of the Inca Empire. After checking into their hotel, the students will tour Sacsayhuaman, Qenqo, Puka Pukara, Tambomachay, and Christo Blanco before attending evening mass at Iglesia de la Merced. Breakfast, lunch, and dinner are included. Overnight in Cusco at Casa Andina Plaza Hotel.
