K2 Adventure Travel is Offering a Trip of a Lifetime for Notre Dame Preparatory Students

Travel to Peru with K2 Adventures Foundation to participate in 4 days of Christian service, visit Sacsayhuaman Ruins and Cristo Blanco, attend mass celebrated in Spanish and tour the famous Machu Picchu ruins. As a participant on this trip, the student will receive 100% of required community service hours for their upcoming school year and a .5 Spanish elective credit.

K2 Adventures Foundation

K2 Adventures Foundation has been providing local, national, and international support to individuals in need since 2009. This trip will focus on community service opportunities in Tanzania, Africa.

K2 Adventure Travel

Kristen Sandquist and Kevin Cherilla, co-owners of the Arizona based adventure travel company, have over 25 years of mountaineering and philanthropic experience. Their trips will change the lives of all individuals that participate.

Four days of Christian service will be held at a local school or orphanage K2AF serves.

The students will participate in community service through classroom activities, playing games with the children, teaching English, or a specific painting and clean up project on the school property.
